

The Hall of Fame for Great Americans

Any citizen of the United States may propose the name of a man or woman who was a citizen and who has been deceased twenty-five years or more. Nominations must be made between April 1, 1975, and April 1, 1976. In the 1973 Election, the following candidates received twenty votes or more, and, by reason of that fact, their names will appear upon the 1976 ballot without the formality of a new nomination:

Clara Barton, Andrew Carnegie, Jefferson Davis, Henry Ford,
George Gershwin, Adolph S. Ochs, John Frank Stevens,
Noah Webster, William Henry Welch

Name of candidate Clara Barton
